

Miraldo Beghini

Miraldo Beghini was born in 1942 in Vicenza, where he still lives and works. From 1959 to 1962 he attended the "La scuola libera del nudo" directed by Santomaso at the "Palazzo S.Stae" in Venice, working with a group of young artists in residence.

In 1961 he attended the course given by Kokoschka at the International Summer Academy of Beaux Arts in Salzburg. From 1964 to 1967 Mr. Beghini was part of the group of Vicenza artists named "La Bilancia", with whom he made several exhibitions in Vicenza and Venice. In 1969 he took the course at the Academy of Salzburg given by Vedova, who later called on him to work (etching) in his atelier and assist him at the Venice Academy from 1970 to 1975.

From 1979 Mr. Beghini has been a member of the Venetian Engravers Academy and has devoted his career also to the artistic ceramics and frescos.

He has his atelier in Vicenza, Contrà Manin, 3.
